To whom it may concern,

I have been Fireman Ralph Feldmans superior for the past three years. During this period while serving as Commanding Officer of Engine Co. 45 the company has responded to over 15,000 alarms of an emergency nature including tense situations involving violence and physical force. At all of the above I have found Fireman Feldmans behavior to be rational and he conducted himself at all times in the best interests and tradition of the New York City Fire Department.

Yours truly,
